

Group ____

ACTIVITY

What are philosophy, science, and superstitions, today and in the Middle Ages?
Try to insert problems and ideas into the columns of these two charts!

Problems and ideas:

- a. Whether something is true or not;
- b. How nature works;
- c. The creation of the philosopher's stone;
- d. What is the ratio between mass and movement of a falling object;
- e. How the stars influence our decisions;
- f. The production of an elixir giving a very long life to the human beings;
- g. The movements of the stars;
- h. What exists and how;
- i. What is matter;
- j. How the stars influence nature;
- k. The relation between arithmetic and physics;
- l. Whether something is good or not;
- m. The summoning of spirits;
- n. The transformation of a physical element into another.

Charts:

Middle Ages

PHILOSOPHY	SCIENCE	SUPERSTITION

Today

PHILOSOPHY	SCIENCE	SUPERSTITION